

Guidelines for the Conduct of the Athletes' Entourage 2016

Preamble

The International Federation Icestocksport (IFI) as an active member of the Olympic Movement has established the following guidelines for the conduct of the Athlete's Entourage.

These regulations apply mutatis mutandis to private and professional entourages.

The IFI Executive Committee based on the initiative of the IFI Entourage Commission may modify these guidelines as to fulfill the requirements made by the Olympic Charter and other regulations established by the respective International Organisations.

1. Definition

The Entourage comprises all the people associated with the athletes within the Icestocksport community and all Icestocksport sports, including, without limitation, managers, agents, coaches, physical trainers, medical staff, scientists, sports organisations, sponsors, lawyers and any person promoting the athlete's sporting career, including family members.

2. General Principles

The Entourage must respect and promote ethical principles, including those contained in the Olympic Charter, the IOC Code of Ethics, the Olympic Movement Code on the prevention of manipulation of competitions, the WADA Code, the IFI Legal Bases, the IFI Code of Ethics and the IFI conduct policies.

The Entourage must, in accordance with such principles, always act in the best interests of the athlete.

Minors must be given special care and consideration.

Members of the Entourage should be adequately qualified to work in their area of expertise, through licenses, certificates or diplomas, particularly when such are proposed by IFI and any national member association.

3. Integrity

The Entourage shall act in good faith and demonstrate the highest level of integrity, in particular respecting the following principles:

- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Fight against any form of bribery and take resolute and appropriate action against any form of cheating or corruption in sport.

- Reject any form of doping; Comply with the WADA code and support its programs.
- Refrain from any form of betting or promotion of betting activity on the athlete's sport.
- Refrain from any form of harassment

4. Confidentiality

The Entourage must respect confidentiality, including the content of their contract/relationship and personal information.

The Entourage must protect any inside information, such as any non-public information obtained by the person by the virtue of his/her position within the athlete's entourage, within the framework of the regulations of the sports' organisation concerned.

5. Transparency

The Entourage's interactions within the relevant populations must be clearly defined, in a written contract where applicable. It is recommended that sports organisations provide standardised contract templates.

The Entourage must be transparent about their personal and professional background with regard to matters which could affect the relationship, including, but not limited to doping, sexual misconduct or financial matters.

Sports organisations have a responsibility to inform athletes about their rights and obligations, including the legal means to resolve any disputes.

6. Responsibility/Accountability

The Entourage must always act with due diligence and in the best interest of the athlete; short term interests should not take precedence over a successful and balanced athletic career and a long-term partnership.

Contractual relationships with athletes must be based on balanced conditions, including fair financial conditions and professional liability insurance.

The Entourage must always respect the moral, physical and psychological integrity of the athlete.

The Entourage must respect and promote the rules and regulations of the sport, and encourage the athlete to behave accordingly.

The Entourage must keep the athlete fully informed of all dealings and arrangements made on the athlete's behalf.

The Entourage must comply with best accounting practices and make available to the athlete full and accurate accounts and records and, where applicable, to the relevant authorities.

The terms of the sanction and the disciplinary procedures are defined by the respective IFI policies.
